GERMAN SUBMARINE ATTACKED AN OCEAN LINER

ATTACK WITHOUT WARNING ON SHIP BEARING NO ARMS HAS STIRRED WASHINGTON

BRITISH STEAMER ORTUNA, CARRYING MORE THAN A SCORE OF AMERICAN PASSENGERS, WAS ATTACKED WITHOUT WARNING WHILE PASSENGERS SLEPT, WITHIN TWENTY MILES OF LUSITANIA GRAVE — TORPEDO BARELY MISSED SHIP

UNITED STATES WILL INSTITUTE OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION OF THE ATTACK

Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Into the grave situation that has developed between the United States and Germany over the sinking of the Lusitania as a result of an attack by a German submarine, there was thrust another issue today when it was revealed that the British steamer Ortuna, carrying over a score of American passengers bound for home, was attacked by a German submarine on July 9 in the North Sea off the coast of Ireland, within twenty miles of the point where lies the Lusitania in her watery grave. Should the statements in the first report that the attack was made without warning be borne out by the official investigation which will soon be instituted the United States government will probably regard the incident as adding to the strained situation.

LONDON, July 17.—The Germans have been showing greater activity in Lorraine and are attacking French positions in the Forest Parroy, the only communication received so far indicating war between the two countries.

The French are reported to be again suffering a retreat in the sector about Toul, while the Germans are pushing forward.

The Germans are the enemy and not the Allies, but the word was given to the French to make their best efforts to hold their ground.
